The maximum acceptable number of co-authors is three!

The Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences follows a variant of APA/MLA styles to accommodate the multi-disciplinarian work that the journal features. References must indicate full name(s) of author(s), editor(s), year of publication, city of publication, publisher’s full name, and page numbers in case of book; and full name(s) of author(s), year of publication, full title of the article, full title of the journal, volume and issue numbers, and page numbers. References at the end of papers in a latest issue of our journal are a good immediate suggestion for potential contributors. Papers not following these guidelines will not be processed. Further, your references and citations must be very recent. Papers with no recent/latest citations will be returned.

It is also important that you carefully proofread your paper before submitting to ensure that it is free of all grammatical errors and typos. You may get help from a native speaker of English or the English faculty of your institution, or use some grammar-software that are supposed to check grammar according to the genre of writing you choose.

Every author is also now required to submit a Turnitin plagiarism report in soft form, though we will continue to check submissions for plagiarism.
